

For Immediate Release

Contact: Vickie Knox,
Festival Director
(760) 728-4588 or (760) 594-2108

The Best of Temecula Valley's Wineries will participate in the 13th Annual Gourd Art Festival next month

May 13, 2009, Fallbrook, CA: Ten or more of the finest Wineries that Temecula has to offer will be serving wine in the Wine Garden at the upcoming 13th Annual Gourd Art Festival which will take place on Saturday, June 27th and Sunday, June 28th, 2009 at the Welburn Gourd Farm.

"The Wine Garden is always a huge attraction," states Vickie Knox, Festival Director for this event. "We are so fortunate to have these fabulous Temecula Wineries pouring wine this year, plus they are offering it at a discounted price."

Over 40 Gourd Art Exhibitors from around the world will be displaying and selling their artwork and supplies during this two day event. "The artistry just gets more phenomenal every year," remarks Laura Cunningham, Product Developer for Welburn Gourd Farm.

Among over 15 new exhibitors at the festival is Goa Feng's Gourd Studio traveling all the way from China for the event. The Festival is also pleased to welcome Dave Abernethy, who specializes in handmade musical instruments from gourds.

Children 12 and under are FREE. Admission is $11.00 at the gate, or just $8.00 when purchased in advance on the festival website at www.GourdFestival.com. Parking is $3.00 for General Parking.

For more information about the 13th Annual Gourd Art Festival, call the Gourd Festival office at 760-728-4588 or visit www.GourdFestival.com

###